A big word of thanks to all those who helped to make our Easter Triduum celebrations memorable events - to all who volunteered so readily to read or have their feet washed; to our choir and musicians, our altar servers; to those who cleaned our churches and prepared magnificent floral arrangements. Many people put in a considerable amount of time in order that we could celebrate Holy Week and Easter worthily and we express our deep gratitude to them. Fr. Michael would also like to thank parishioners for your kind gifts and Easter Offerings.
