The Ann Holt Trust.

Ann Holt was a benevolent lady in Halifax who, when she died, in 1921, set up a trust to support with a pension a number of single ladies, living in the old borough of Halifax for at least 5 years and with limited means. The trust is looking for single or widowed ladies who have a weekly income of less than £175 per week and less than £4000 in the bank, to apply for this pension currently amounting to around £300 per year.
