Church Heating.

We will make the move back into church at the end of this week and from the Saturday morning 10.00am Mass the church will be returned to full usage. The project won't quite be finished but the major disruption has run its course. Many thanks to all those who helped to ensure that the hall was ready for use throughout the winter and in recent weeks, arranging chairs, moving the altar furniture etc. Their labours are greatly appreciated and everyone's co-operation to make this arrangement work has been greatly appreciated.
