The National Jubilee Pilgrimage of Hope.

To mark the Holy Year pilgrims are invited to walk one of four routes (named after the four evangelists) to St Barnabas Catholic Cathedral in Nottingham arriving on September 13th. The walks start from Catholic cathedrals in Cardiff, Leeds, Norwich, and London. The walk from Leeds Cathedral, named St Mark's Way, starts with an 8am Celebration of Mass on Saturday 6th September. Pilgrims can join the walk for a part day, a full day or the full week of walking and details can be found on our diocesan website: Visit:

Use of St Malachy's Church.

With the Bishop's approval, from Sunday 17th August a small local group who have converted to the Antiochian Orthodox Church will celebrate their Sunday Eucharist in St Malachy's church starting at 11am. They will contribute a weekly sum of £50 to defray heating and lighting costs associated with this.

SVP Centre Leeds are collecting electrical goods. If you have any items can they please be left in the church porches Sunday August 3rd or 10th. Thank you.

Mary's Meal: A Special Appeal.

Mary's Meals feed children a daily meal to 2.4 million school children in some of the world's poorest countries. They are seeking support through the collection of left-over foreign currency and out of date UK currency. These can be left over the next few weeks in the special boxes to be found in the porches of the two churches.
